

Conflict Minerals Policy Statement

Teltec Corp. (dba Gorilla Circuits), shall be known as "Company" here in, has adopted the following Conflict Minerals Policy Statement.

The Company shall do its due diligent to comply with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") final rules under Section 1502 of Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act relating to "Conflict Minerals".

While the Company does not source any said materials from the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) and the covered countries directly, such materials may exist in the products or components that the Company sources from its suppliers. To ensure compliance with these rules, the Company shall conduct inquiries of its supply chain and take appropriate action to prevent Conflict Minerals from entering our supply chain.

The Company shall require its relevant suppliers to respond to information requests regarding the uses and sources of Conflict Minerals in their products. The supplier shall do its due diligent to stay in compliant to the SEC's Conflict Minerals rules within their supply chain and shall notify the Company of any potential or known non-compliance. The Company's management shall review and take appropriate action(s) to ensure compliant upon receiving notification.

Sincerely,

Paul Pham

EH&S Specialist
Gorilla Circuits